Notes

- student will remain in the exam for 1 hour minimum and go to the library when finished
- All 30 level exams are government diploma examinations
- Grade 9 courses may include the PAT's (Provincial Achievement Tests), as part of the overall final grade. All students have regular classes until the date indicated

Study Halls

- Study halls will be held after exams. Study Hall is a scheduled time for students to ask teachers questions before exams.
- Senior high students may be either in study hall or sign out and leave the school upon completion of an examination.
- Grade 7 – 9 students may stay home when they do not have exams. When students have finished writing their exam they must be in a designated study hall or leave the school (if they have parent's permission in writing).
